To whom it may concern

Back in 2004 my wife and I purchased a small acreage in Strathalbyn, which was cut off of a large farm. The property had an array of different shedding etc on it. One of which was an old chicken coup which was clad with asbestos.

As Hahns and Amanda from PCT Bathrooms were clients of mine, I was aware he had the ability and know how as to demolish the chicken coup and dispose of the asbestos.

I engaged Hahns to take care of this task for me prior to the commencement of building our new home.

Please don't hesitate to contact me if required.

Yours sincerely
